1. Animal Breeding Services (Artificial Insemination) - Cattle, Carabao, Goat and Swine

This service provides Artificial Insemination (AI) as an alternative method to breed female cattle, carabao, goats, and swine that are evaluated as in heat or ready to breed. AI involves the introduction of semen into the reproductive tract of a female animal without direct contact with a male, reducing disease transmission and improving genetic quality. This method allows farmers to utilize high-quality genetics from superior male animals, resulting in healthier and better-quality offspring while enhancing farm productivity.

If the female animal does not conceive, a repeat AI service will be provided free of charge in the next cycle (21 days) until pregnancy is confirmed.
